

Congratulations BPW Germany

BPW Germany has retained its status as the best brand for trailer axles. Winners of the award are selected by the readers of three trade journals, namely FERNFAHRER, lastauto omnibus and trans aktuell. BPW Germany was especially delighted to accept the accolade for the 11th time in succession.

Ralf Merkelbach, senior key account manager for large fleets in Europe, and head of corporate communications Katrin Köster received the award at a ceremony in Ludwigsburg Palace on 21 June. READ MORE

BPW Germany won second prize for its electric axle drive eTransport in the GreenTec Awards, which rank among the world's leading environmental innovation distinctions. eTransport was developed as an axle with integrated electric drive for distribution vehicles. It has been designed specifically to allow retrofitting to existing vehicles.

The drive concept also found favour with the panel of experts appointed by the ETM publishing house, who selected BPW Germany for the KEP Innovation Prize. The trade journal VerkehrsRundschau has likewise recognised BPW Germany's zero-emission electrical axle drive by awarding it the title of Green Truck Innovation 2017. The accolade is reserved for technical solutions that reduce the burden imposed on the environment by commercial vehicles.
